TEN WEEKS TOUR OF NORTHERN EUROPE TO BEGIN WITH.

National Commission Sails From New York To-morrow-Returning in October It Will See the Barge Canal and Great Lakes-Independent Observer.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Seven of the twelve members of the National Waterways Commission which was directed by Congress to investigate not only the waterways of Europe and Canada but the waterways of the United States for the purpose of making recommendations for the improvement of the rivers, harbors and canals of this country will sail on Tuesday morning on the North German Lloyd liner Kronprinzessin Cecilie on a ten weeks investigation and examination of the waterways of Europe. The party is made up of Senator Burton of Ohio, chairman; Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, vice chairman; his son, William H. Gallinger; Senator Simmons of North Carolina, D. S. Alexander and wife. Representative Stevens and wife of ota. Representative Wanger of Pennsylvania, Representative Sparkman of Florida. Representative and Mrs. Cas siday of Ohio, Prof. McPherson of Johns Hopkins University, Prof. Johnson of the University of Pennsylvania, Col. William H. Bixby, Engineer Corps, U. S. A., and Herbert Knox Smith, chief of the bureau

It is the intention of Senator Piles of of Michigan, Senator Lorimer of Illinois and Congressman Moon of Tennessee also members of the Waterways Commis ion, to join the party on September 8 at Strasburg, Germany, where the com-mittee will commence an investigation of Strasburg. Germany, where the committee will commence an investigation of the Rhine.

The itinerary includes visits to the great commercial centres of Europe and the capitals of the Old World in order that a first hand study may be made not only of the waterways but of the transportation problems relating to their use as freight and passenger lines. The party will spend from August 18 to 22 inspecting canals and rivers in and around Berlin. They will be at Dresden August 23 and 24. Prague August 25 and 26. Vienna 28 to 31. Budapest will be reached September 1, where three days will be apent in an investigation of the Danube, the party journeying to Orsuva the night of September 3. September 5 and 6 will be passed at Belgrade and going back to Budapest. The party will go from Budapest to Munich on the evening of September 7. The visit to Strassburg will be made on the 8th and then a rather extended trip on the Rhine from September 18 to 14. Holland, its dikes and canals, will occupy the attention of the party from September 15 to 17; Belgium, September 18 to 21, the canal system of this country being regarded as most complete; Paris, 22 to 30, and London, October 1 to 15. This last date includes trips along the Manchester Ship Canal and inspection of harbors and waterways of England. The party will arrive in New York October 28. Emery R. Johnson, who holds the chair of transportation and commerce in the University of Pennsylvania, accompanies the party as the representative of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress. Mr. Johnson will not only submit his findings as an independent observer to the National Rivers and Harbors convention to be held here December 8, 9 and 10. Mr. Johnson, who upon other occasions has made a study of the waterways to railways and the industry and trade of these waterways. Upon its return to New York in October the commission will go up the Hudson, making a stop at Albany to make an examination of the proped improvement of the upper river in connection with the State barge canal. 5 BOYS AND AN UPSET BOAT. All Exhausted When a Police Tug Pulled Them From the Bay.

Five Brooklyn boys in bathing suits nired a rowboat for the afternoon at a boathouse in the Gowanus Canal yesterday and set out to row in the harbor. About half a mile from the shore they saw hat by vigorous rewing they might enjoy the swell of the ferryboat Castleton as she passed, and they rowed with all their might. Just as they cut into the swell one of the rowers "caught a crab." Over went the boat and out went the boys. All of them could swim, but each made a grab for the overturned boat and caught it. PIANOS

A Saving Sale That Saves Dollars

The Return Rental Pianos we are offering this week presents a very unusual opportunity to any one who wants a thoroughly reliable Piano at an astonishingly low price. These Pianos were returned to us during last April and May, after being used from 6 to 9 months in some of Brooklyn's best homes. We have marked them at less than their regular fixed selling prices of $300 to $450, in order to sell them immediately, as the floor where they are handled must be cleared to make room for the new Fall designs, which we are now receiving for the regular Autumn business.

You Need Only Pay'10 Cash

to have one delivered at once, or have it held in our storage department, free of charge, until you are ready to receive it.

Considering that these Pianos are our own standard makes and practically new, they are undoubtedly the best values ever offered in Greater New York, and we urge you to come to our warerooms to-morrow morning and investigate these unusual money-saving opportunities.

You are certain to find just what you want among this lot, and, whichever you choose, you are bound to make a saving which will make it well worth your while to buy now.

BEAR IN MIND that these Pianos are manufactured in our own factories and are fully guaranteed. They are the highest grade and quality that is possible to produce. Do not confuse them with cheap unknown kinds of questionable quality that are daily offered as bargains by bargain stores. The Lexington, Ky., Aug. 8.—Samuel Earley, a merchant of Flat Lick, Knox county, was killed and John Henson. William Bargo and William Smith, were fatally injured in a feud fight last Saturday afternoon at a school election. Henry Slusher and William Baker, leaders of two factions, were candidates for school trustees in the precinct and Earley and Bargo were officers of the election. Shortly after the voting began Henson appeared in the booth and announced that he proposed to act as challenger for Baker and demanded that he be allowed to watch the vote and assist in the final count. His demands were denied by Earley and a war of words followed, during which several supporters of Bargo and Slusher entered the booth.
